KALAMAZOO COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYERS VOLUNTEER AT SOUTH HAVEN PUMP TRACK

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – (South Haven, Michigan) Players from Kalamazoo College football team volunteered to help at the South Haven Pump Track on Tuesday, September 5, 2017.

The seventy-two volunteers took part in restoration of the property. Several tasks were performed including removing the big stones; laying 80 cubic yards of black dirt; spreading seed; and laying straw blankets to cover the seed. The volunteers contributed three hours each for a total of 216 total man hours.

The City of South Haven appreciates the Kalamazoo College football players for their volunteer work at the pump track located on Wells Street near the City's skate park.
