MEMORANDUM

To: Residents of the City of South Haven

From: Travis Sullivan, City Clerk

Date: January 11, 2018

RE: City board and commission vacancies

At the February 19, 2018 regular meeting of the South Haven City Council, the mayor and council will be asked to make several board and commission appointments, due to current vacancies. Although applications are always accepted for future consideration, applications for the following positions should be submitted by 5:00 p.m. on Friday, February 9, 2018. Those vacancies include:

- Board of Public Utilities
- Downtown Development Authority (2 vacancies, including residency-required seat for a partial term expiring May 2020)
- Housing Commission (resident, partial term expiring 2021)
- Local Development and Finance Authority
- Planning Commission (partial term, expiring May 2018)
- Parks Commission (partial term, expiring May 2020)

Additionally, a number of terms will be expiring throughout the 2018 calendar year. At that time, the individual with the expiring term can be reappointed by the mayor or the council, or a new member can be appointed from the gathered pool of applicants. Those additional terms expiring in 2018 include:

Board of Public Utilities – May 2018
Construction Board of Appeals – May 2018 (2 seats)
Downtown Development Authority – December 2018
Harbor Commission – March 2018
Harbor Commission – May 2018
Housing Commission – June 2018
Library Board – May 2018
L DFA/Brownfield – May 2018
Parks Commission – May 2018 (2 seats)
Planning Commission – May 2018
Zoning Board of Appeals – May 2018 (3 seats)
Zoning Board of Appeals – November 2018
